

Molly's Revenge to Headline Celtic Christmas Celebration

Local Event Will Also Raise Funds for Two Medical Research Charities

(Carmichael) – Popular Bay Area Celtic music band Molly's Revenge will be returning to the Sacramento area in December for a Christmas concert that is guaranteed to entertain and delight fans of Scottish and Irish music.

The group's classic combination of bagpipes, whistle, fiddle, and song — set against a backdrop of guitar, bouzouki, and mandola accompaniment — perfectly captures the spirit of a traditional Celtic Christmas.

What: Celtic Christmas Celebration with Molly's Revenge

When: Saturday, December 12
7 pm (doors open at 6:15 pm)

Where: St. Michael's Episcopal Church
Johnstone Hall

2140 Mission Avenue
Carmichael, CA 95608

Cost: $18 in advance or $20 at the door

This holiday celebration will also feature special guest Moira Smiley, an acclaimed vocalist and musician based in Los Angeles, as well as the Turco Irish Dancers. Part of the proceeds from this event will be donated to the Aplastic Anemia and MDS International Foundation and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

Tickets are on sale on the band's website and at St. Michael's Episcopal Church, (916) 557-0151. Please visit the Molly's Revenge website, <http://www.mollysrevenge.com/>, for additional information.
